

"PSYCHIANA"

(RE-WRITTEN BY DR. ROBINSON IN 1946)

* * * *

Being a new understanding and application of the Power of The Almighty. Being too, an attempt to disclose to the world how all normal men and women may find and use the actual and literal Power of The Spirit of God, to the end that they may live forever on the earth in close personal fellowship with God.

"PSYCHIANA" is a religious society. It operates entirely by mail and is strictly non-profit in nature. Its entire motive is to reveal The Power of God to humanity. The premises in these Lessons are publicly denied by practically all major religions, yet many of their ministers use these Lessons as basis for their sermons. Our Members will soon discover whether The Spirit of God is being revealed thru them.

EACH LESSON SHOULD BE READ CAREFULLY EVERY DAY.

LESSON NUMBER FOUR

We made the very important discovery in Lesson number three that present concepts of God, based on "belief" without proof, cannot reveal The Spirit of God to anyone. We pointed out that no major system of religion on earth has anything more tangible to offer than certain "beliefs". In the six larger religions, they have what is known as "Sacred writings" and these are offered as evidence that the "beliefs" are true, because these "writings" are divinely inspired. Every major religion, having its bible, or other sacred writings, submits these books to the public, tells them they are the infallibly inspired "word of God", and it is upon these "writings" the followers of the religion are asked to rest their present and future existence.

I shall not in these Lessons prove that in most cases the "writings" are not of God, although of course, all writings along religious lines contain some truth. But to point to any one of these "bibles" or "sacred writings" and make the flat statement that they are the divinely inspired "word of God" to the exclusion of everything else, is just as idiotic and false as is the theory that The Almighty regretted that He ever made man, or that He held a conversation with a talking-snake in the Garden of Eden. In fact, the "talking-snake" story comes from the "sacred-writings" of several different systems of religion. It is not exclusive with Christianity. I believe we can safely lay to one side, any and all "beliefs about" God. So far as these many "sacred writings" and "bibles" go, we should take from them what The Spirit of God in us reveals as truth, rejecting the rest.

For these "sacred writings" can show no more success in revealing the Power of God to the world than can the "beliefs" they contain. The Christian story of the "creation" with its "fall of man" and its subsequent descent of The Almighty in the form of God's own son, was taken almost in its entirety from the much older religion of the Hindoo. May I briefly, to prove my statement, give the two stories in a nutshell, then you can judge whether one was stolen from the other, or merely borrowed from it. The Christian story you are quite familiar with. The first couple on earth were Adam and Eve who had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. But 1500 years before, in the Hindoo religion, the first couple were called Adimo and Heva, and they had three sons whose names were Shérma, Hama, and Jiapheta—practically the same.

The "crucified god" of these Hindoo people was Jeseus Chrishna, while the "crucified god" of the Christian religion was supposed to have been named Jesus Christ. Again—almost the same. When the flood came, the only man found righteous in the sight of the Lord was Noah, who was saved from the flood by taking refuge in an ark. But—1500 years before, the only man found righteous in the sight of the Lord was Noe. And so it goes. In other writings I have proven beyond the shadow of doubt, that there is nothing original in the Christian story of man's fall and his coming redemption. The story was told and known to millions of people thousands of years before Christ was ever heard of. Nor has there ever been known to exist one original manuscript covering anything in the Christian Bible. When asked for proof of the divine authority of these writings, the Christian religion has to say:—"We do not have it—all the originals of the entire Bible were lost".

Now I point this out, not to discredit the Christian or any other religion. I point these facts out to bear me out in my premise that the actual TRUTHS of God have not been brought to the human race by any system of religion. That leaves us in a world that is absolutely and completely God-less does it not?—save perhaps in a few instances where a man or woman may be found who has fought and perhaps bled his or her way thru to God. One look at the world today proves my statement. I shall not go into the bloody horrors of the past twenty-five years during which time we fought two wars to "save the world for democracy". In this past war, nearly a million casualties in killed and wounded. Did we save the world for democracy? And if we did, what good is democracy without God?

Now all of this gives us our starting-point. We admit a world in which the Power of God is unknown. Present-day conditions are the result then, of the evolution of man over the scores of thousands of years. But it is an evolution absolutely without the active participation of The Almighty. During the past two world wars, almost every nation prayed to The Almighty for victory. But their prayers fell upon deaf ears I am afraid. Almighty God had nothing to do with these two, or with any other wars. They were made by man, fought by man, and man will reap the results of them. Under no circumstances then can any nation or any individual accuse God of having anything to do with either the winning or the losing of those wars. The nations having the largest number of the most effective weapons of physical destruction won those wars, if there can indeed be any such thing as winning a war. When human blood is shed on the battle-fields of the world, no one wins. It is all a shocking travesty upon the name of God for either side to even mention the name of God in connection with such brutality.

So I say, and you believe, do you not, that the world we live in is a completely God-less world. Full of religion—yes. Full of churches—yes. But completely empty of the actual Spirit of God. This leaves us a very fertile field in which to work. We can bring our message of the actual Power of The Spirit of God to men and women who have never heard it before. We can demonstrate the Power of God as it has never been demonstrated before. We can show men and women how they can find and use the actual Power of God for the securing of everything they can possibly need, whether spiritual or material. For to possess knowledge of the existence of The Spirit of God in the Life, is to possess a Power so great that all other powers and forces fade into insignificance beside it.

It has been quite necessary to date that we spend a few Lessons in bringing to you the present world-picture. There can now be no confusion as we travel along together into this Realm of The Spirit of God. You will note how the actual Truths of God veer away from what have been considered truths of God in the past. You will also note that we are to find God in the very place we have been told God cannot exist until after we die, and even then, in only a very few of us. Thus is it ever with the Truths of God. What man builds up and says is of God, The Almighty is very apt to destroy, showing man his error. So then, we start with the hypothesis that all the Power God has is available to man BECAUSE THAT POWER ACTUALLY LIVES IN MAN. Yes—that Power lived in the bodies of those precious boys whose bones lie on Flanders Fields. But when The Spirit of God is the ruling Power in this world, AS IT WILL HAVE TO BE, such scenes will never again be seen or heard of. I am not much of a one to pray, for that is not the way God is spoken to. But I do feel like saying here:—"May God hasten that day". God will, if YOU will join me and do YOUR part.

At this point in our journey toward the Realm of The Spirit of God, I believe it will be satisfactory for you and I to have a rather clear picture of what your life will be like, and later on, what the world will be like when the nations of this earth have made the startling discovery you are to make before you have ended your journey with me. Let me assure you that it will be a very different life from what it is now, no matter how good you may now be. Let me assure you also that this will be a very different world from the one we now have, too. No matter how successful your life may now be, no matter how happy it may now be, no matter how full it may now be, it still is incomplete because the union with the Creator is not known to you now. If you have been successful in life, then you have unconsciously used the Power which is God to bring that success to you. If you enjoy perfect health, perfect happiness today, then the chances are that you enjoy these things because you have unconsciously used The Spirit of God, not knowing that you were using that Great Spirit. That is completely possible. It is done many times.

But how much more effective will your life be when you can CONSCIOUSLY DIRECT the Spirit which is God, and have that Spirit respond with never-failing Power and action. That, you will agree, would be the very zenith of happiness. Add to that Eternal Life, which is quite possible on this earth, and would not your cup be full, complete, and running over? Would you then fail to recognize the Spirit of God which had made all that possible? I think not. I think you would very zealously guard that Great Treasure, as you will, when you begin to discover how to actually use this Power as a result of your Studies with me.

I do not know what the financial circumstances of my Members are. They come to me in too great a number. I suspect that I have all sorts. Poor, rich, happy, unhappy, fearful, calm and everything else I suspect controls their lives. So the path along which I am leading you must be wide enough to embrace all sorts of people. However, the fundamental Law which is God operates with remarkable precision and accuracy for all alike. THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS A HUMAN BEING COMPLYING WITH THE LAW WHICH IS GOD, FAILING TO RECEIVE WHATEVER IT IS HE OR SHE NEEDS. That cannot happen. For the God we teach created the universe. The God we teach lives, not only in the universe, but in EACH LIFE. Feel your pulse at this moment—then ask yourself what Power it is that makes your heart beat.

Now you have been travelling with me along this Pathway to God for six weeks now. There should be manifesting in you, as a result of your quiet periods with God, and as a result of the constant practice of repeating the statement of fact, quite a definite manifestation of the Power of God. I said the Power of God was a silent Power, so you will not know perhaps that such a Power has begun to make itself available to you. So I'm going to give you a little test to perform. This test you must keep absolutely to yourself until you have successfully performed what I shall ask you to do. What will happen will amaze you, provided you have followed me earnestly and honestly, with a humble heart and with a clear vision. Here is what I shall ask you to do.

There may be someone who is sick in your home. Perhaps in your neighbor's home. It may be a chronic illness or a passing headache. No matter what it is, the technique you will use is this:—Look at the afflicted person and smile. Then, if this is a chronic case of illness, I care not what sort, say to the afflicted one: "Do you believe the Power of God can bring about your recovery?" If the sick person says "I certainly do" or something on that order, lay your hand on the forehead of that person and say "The Spirit of God has healed you." Now if the afflicted person has actually believed that there does exist a God who not only can, but WILL heal the body, you are very apt to be amazed at what you will see. In most cases where the sick person instinctively knows God can heal, but does not know just how or when God can heal, the healing will be instantaneous. The laying on of the hand is not at all necessary, and is only for effect on the sick one. It has nothing to do with the healing which, of course, COMES FROM THE SPIRIT OF GOD IN YOUR BODY. What actually happens is this—you have awakened The Spirit of God in you, and YOU HAVE DIRECTED THAT GREAT SPIRIT TO PERFORM A CERTAIN WORK WHICH IS FOR THE HEALING OF ANOTHER BODY. PROVIDED THAT THE SICK PERSON DOES NOT BLOCK THE HEALING BY ABSOLUTE DOUBT, A SO-CALLED MIRACLE WILL OCCUR BEFORE YOUR EYES.

Now some persons will say:—"Of course I believe that God can heal me" when as a matter of fact they believe nothing of the sort. If you run into that, you might just as well leave the party alone. Most cases though, actually believe that there does exist somewhere, a Power that is God, which certainly can do healing whenever that may be necessary. Whenever that condition exists, anyone who has had The Spirit of God awakened in him or her, CAN HEAL ANY DISEASE KNOWN TO MEDICAL SCIENCE. The healing, as I have explained, comes from The Spirit of God in you. Try this on some of your church-member friends who may be ill, and you will soon discover that very little actual faith in a LIVING GOD exists at all. I have had people tell me:—"Oh but Dr. Robinson—I believe it is the will of God that I be ill". There is nothing to do in a case like that. Waste no time on it.

Now please remember that so far as I am concerned, I am only allowing you to do this to prove to your own satisfaction what a Power you actually possess in your own body. Do not think please, that because The Spirit of God has seen fit to inhabit your body, it cannot amount to much. May I say to you that The Spirit of God in you IS IN LEAGUE WITH ALL THE SPIRIT OF GOD IN THE UNIVERSE. So if your little body cannot contain enough of the Power of The Spirit of God, there is plenty more for you. It is not a case of your having a small or a large amount of The Power of God available to you—IF YOU AWAKEN THE SPIRIT OF GOD IN YOU AT ALL, YOU HAVE AT YOUR DISPOSAL, ALL THE POWER OF THE UNIVERSE.

Do not try this unless you find a case which actually needs help, and which actually believes in the present existence of a God who is NOT in the heavens, but whose Power can manifest here and now. This will bring home to you, the first actual experience of The Spirit of God. It will be a wonderful thing, and you will be very happy over it all. The quickness with which illness leaves a body when The Power of God is thrown against it is amazing. It will not be long before those around you will instinctively know that you are in tune with the Infinite, though as a matter of fact you have learned very little about God yet. You have learned a lot though, if you have thoroughly learned that all the God-Power there is in the universe is available to you—NOW.

At this point in your studies, you may change your daily thought to this:—"I AM FINDING THE POWER OF THE LIVING GOD IN ME". Please be constant in this. Keep your rendezvous with God—ALONE. God and you—ALONE—can solve every problem in your life. Do you believe that? Of course you do. Read this Lesson twice each day until you know it by heart. Read every Lesson, one following the other also.
